

QUAD CURVED PHOTOMETRY

BUILDING CURVES IN DIALUX / RELUX

In order to model curves within lighting simulation programs such as Dialux and Relux, you must build the curve out of multiple short linear sections.

These photometrics represent a single board length of 285mm. For tighter curve radii you may need shorter boards / articulated boards.

Contact our lighting design through your designated sales representative for further help.